
DIORAMA OF BUFFALO HUNTERS

The most popular exhibits in the Oregon Trail Museum are two three-dimensional dioramas depicting typical scenes of buffalo-hunting days during the 1870's when the animals, which once roamed the plains in vast herds, were nearly exterminated. Here the hunter stalks a large herd.

SCOTTS BLUFF NATIONAL MONUMENT
OREGON TRAIL MUSEUM ASSOCIATION

Downey's Midwest Studio, 17 E. 16th Street, Scottsbluff, Nebraska

23277

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

POST CARD

Address